

HIGH CASTE AND PEON WOMEN SUFFER ALIKE IN WAR-RAVAGED MEXICO

Mexican woman refugee escaping from her war-torn country into the United States. In the basket she carries her sole possessions which she gathered together hastily before leaving her native land.

Mexico City, Mexico, April 28.—War makes many changes. Conventionalities of years' standing are being shattered. The rich and the poor suffer alike in this war-torn republic.

lie. Senoras and señoritas have been turned out of palatial haciendas and made to suffer in common with peon refugees. Peon wives frequently accompany their husbands on the
